

090VI

Beyond the Obvious.

Some artists make music.

Some artists build a sound.

And then there are artists who are simply trying to make sense of the world around them, one experience, one feeling and one story at a time.

090VI belongs to the third kind.

The name is more than an identity. It represents a perspective: a way of looking at life beyond what is immediately visible. The joy. The pressure. The desire. The struggle. The ambition. The relationships. The moments that are difficult to explain but impossible not to feel.

That perspective has always found its way into the music.

From “Sisi Caro” in 2020 to “Estoppel,” “Kamasutra,” “No Go Kyll Yourself (NGKYS)” and “ANIKE,” 090VI's catalogue reflects an artist willing to explore different moods and different sides of the human experience.

But the story goes deeper than a list of releases.

In 2020, 090VI released “H.FOD (The Head Full Of Dreams)”, featuring X-One, a record described at the time as a song for people carrying dreams while navigating difficult circumstances. The song was associated with the then-planned Proverbs project, giving an early glimpse into an artist interested not only in entertainment, but in the realities, hopes and contradictions that shape everyday life.

That is the thread running through 090VI.

Dreams, desire, reality and expression.

There is no single box for the sound. There is room for Afropop. There is room for rhythm. There is room for emotion. There is room for experimentation. Most importantly, there is room for evolution.

Because 090VI is not about remaining exactly the same.

It is about remaining authentic while becoming something new.

The music carries the energy of Africa, but the stories are human. They can belong to the person chasing a dream, the person trying to find love, the person dealing with disappointment, the person celebrating a breakthrough or simply the person who needs a song that understands what words cannot explain.

That is the space 090VI occupies.

Not just music for the ears.

Music for the moments.

Music for the memories.

Music for the parts of life that are rarely seen from the outside.

And perhaps that is what 090VI ultimately represents:

the courage to look beyond the obvious and tell the story from another angle.

This is not the end of the story.

It is the sound of a story still unfolding.
